² Monthly premiums are based on prior years' claims utilization and actuarial estimates.

Health and Dental Pre-tax Deduction ▼

Health and/or dental premiums are deducted before federal and state income tax, FICA and Medicare taxes are calculated. Premiums are then a pre-tax deduction, and is the default option for health and dental premiums for the University. Employees may choose to opt out of this by contacting Human Resource Services.

Participation in the health and dental pre-tax deduction option limits the changes that can be made to health and dental plans during the plan year and may slightly reduce Social Security benefits. For more information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/learn-takehome-pay>.

Vision Options ▼

Coverage Start Date:

The first of the next month following the hire date, providing you enroll within 30 days of your date of employment.

Pays medical bills and salary replacement for employees injured on the job or who suffer from job-related illnesses. The program is administered by Sedgwick CMS of Des Moines, Iowa. For more information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/workerscomp>.

Free WW ▼

UNI benefit eligible employees are eligible to join WW for free! WW is Weight Watchers reimagined. No matter what your goal is—to lose weight, eat healthier, move more, develop a more positive mindset, or all of the above, WW may be for you. To learn more, and to get started, visit hrs.uni.edu/wellbeing/freeww.

Flexible Spending Accounts (FSA) ▼

Coverage Start Date:

Effective the first day of the month following the date of enrollment, providing you enroll within 30 days of your date of employment.

Coverage End Date:

The last day of the month the appointment is no longer eligible or the last day of the termination month -- whichever comes first.

Employees may elect to make pre-tax contributions to a spending account to be reimbursed for dependent care expenses and/or health, dental, and vision expenses. To be eligible for reimbursement, expenses must be incurred by March 15. Reimbursement requests must be received by March 31 following the end of the plan year. Funds not used will be forfeited. Contribution elections may not be changed during the calendar year unless there is an approved family status change. New employees electing to participate in a spending account enroll from date of eligibility until December 31 only for the initial year of participation.

Dependent Care Account

This account is used to reimburse dependent daycare care expenses incurred by employees. The maximum contribution is $5,000 per year per family or the salary of the lower paid spouse – whichever is lower. Spouses who are full-time students have an assumed income of $200 per month. The minimum contribution is $20 per month. Eligible expenses are limited to those allowed by the IRS for the Dependent Care Tax Credit. Every dollar contributed to a Dependent Care Account reduces the allowable tax credit (on the tax return) by a dollar. Generally if family income is $30,000 or more, the Dependent Care Account is more advantageous than the tax credit. Expenses are reimbursed as funds accrue in the account. For more information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/learn-takehome-pay>.

Health Care Account

This account is used to reimburse health, dental, and vision expenses that are not covered by insurance plans. Expenses are limited to those allowed as deductions by the IRS. Some examples include: deductibles, copayments, co-insurance amounts, and expenses not covered such as eyeglasses and some over-the-counter drugs. The IRS publishes a separate listing of deductible expenses. The maximum contribution is $3,050 per year. The minimum contribution is $20 per month. Expenses are reimbursed when they are incurred up to the annual contribution level. For more information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/learn-takehome-pay>.

Employee Well-being ▼

Coverage Start Date:

First day of work.

Coverage End Date:

The last day of the month the appointment is no longer eligible or the last day of the termination month -- whichever comes first.

As a part of your total benefits package, UNI Employee Well-being provides programs and initiatives that support a healthy lifestyle and environment in which to live and work. Employees are offered annual flu vaccinations, biometric screenings, a healthy weight program, financial wellness opportunities, tobacco cessation services, and employee assistance program. The program also includes an annual Benefits & Well-being fair, and educational learning opportunities in the areas of health, nutrition, mental health, financial literacy, and retirement readiness.

Employees have the option to use the Wellness & Recreation Center by paying an annual user fee. Employees also have access to fitness and leisure classes, personal trainers, adult and youth swim lessons, CPR and first aid classes, and over-the-counter products through the Student Health Clinic. For more information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/wellbeing>.

Nursing Mothers and Lactation Rooms ▼

Coverage Start Date:

First day of employment.

Coverage End Date:

The last day of the month the appointment is no longer eligible or the last day of the termination month -- whichever comes first.

As part of our family-friendly benefits, the University of Northern Iowa supports breastfeeding mothers by accommodating the mother who wishes to express breast milk during her workday. The University provides five private lactation rooms for mothers to use to express milk. Lactation rooms are located in Gilchrist Hall, Bartlett Hall, Maucker Union, Schindler, and in the Child Development Center at Nielsen Field House. Additionally, if you elect a University sponsored health plan, it may cover part of the cost for a breast pump. For more information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/nursing-mothers>.

Retirement Programs ▼

Coverage Start Date:

First day of employment.

Coverage End Date:

The last day of the month the appointment is no longer eligible or the last day of the termination month -- whichever comes first.

The State of Iowa requires all state employees to participate in an approved retirement program. The only exceptions are foreign nationals who are in the United States as exchange scholars, trainees, professors, teachers, research assistants and specialists. If an employee does not choose a retirement program, he or she will default to IPERS participation. Participation election, both by election or by default, is irrevocable and cannot be changed at any time during an employee's employment with the University of Northern Iowa.

Iowa Public Employees Retirement System (IPERS)

 If a new employee has retired and previously participated in IPERS at UNI or another state agency, they cannot receive IPERS distributions if they earn an annual salary of $30,000 or more at any state agency.

A defined benefit program administered by the State of Iowa. UNI contributes 9.44% of paid salary. The employee contributes 6.29% of paid salary. The contributions (both UNI and the employee) are different for Regent Police Officers. For more information, as well as contribution rates, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/ipers>.

Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association (TIAA)

 If a new employee has retired from UNI and previously participated in TIAA, they cannot return in a TIAA eligible position and receive distributions.

A defined contribution program administered by TIAA. Employee may allocate monthly contributions between several accounts. UNI contributes 10% of all earnings while the employee contributes 5% of all earnings. For more information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/tiaa>.

Tax-Deferred Annuity (TDA) Plan

Employees may set aside additional contributions to a TIAA Supplemental Retirement Annuity or to another approved vendor subject to IRS guidelines for maximum exclusion amounts. UNI does not contribute matching funds. For more information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/tda>.

Public Service Student Loan Forgiveness ▼

Individuals who work in the public sector (e.g. UNI employees) may qualify for the Public Service Student Loan forgiveness (PSLF) program. UNI Employees who have federal student loans (direct loans) may qualify to have the remainder of their student loans forgiven.

To be eligible you must be working full-time for a qualifying public sector employer for at least 10 years, and make at least 120 qualifying monthly payments toward federal student loans.

For more information and an application please visit: <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/student-loan-forgiveness>.

Staff Only Benefits

Vacation for Staff ▼

Coverage Start Date:

First day of employment.

Coverage End Date:

The last day of the month the appointment is no longer eligible or the last day of the termination month -- whichever comes first.

Staff members with non-temporary appointments begin earning vacation on their latest hire date in an eligible position. Vacation time may be used with the approval of the department. When the maximum accrual is reached, the employee does not accumulate additional vacation until some has been used. Holidays that fall during an employee's scheduled vacation are paid as a holiday and are not charged to an employee's vacation accumulation. Questions should be referred to Payroll, 3-6425. For more information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/absence#7>.

Academic Administrators, Institutional Officials, Merit Supervisory, and P&S Staff

Full time, non-temporary, 12-month employees accrue 16 hours of vacation and personal days per month or 24 days per year. Employees may accumulate a maximum of twice the annual accrual – 384 hours or 48 days

Merit AFSCME, Merit Confidential, and Merit Supervisory

Following is the schedule for vacation accrual:

Year of Service	Monthly Vacation Accrual-Hours	Monthly Personal Holiday Accrual-Hours	Total Monthly Accrual-Hours	Annual Accrual-Hours	Annual Accrual-Days
1st-4th	6.67	1.33	8.00	96 Hours	12 Days

20th-24th	14.67	1.33	16.00	192 Hours	24 Days
25th+	16.67	1.33	18.00	216 Hours	27 Days

Sick Leave for Staff ▼

Coverage Start Date:

First day of employment.

Coverage End Date:

The last day of the month the appointment is no longer eligible or the last day of the termination month -- whichever comes first.

Staff members with non-temporary appointments begin accruing sick on their latest hire date in an eligible position. Full time, non-temporary, 12-month employees accrue 12 hours of sick leave per month or 18 days per year. Sick leave may be used for the employee's illness. Other uses of sick leave, with limitations, are emergency leave for the care of ill or injured family members, funeral leave, pallbearer leave and adoption leave. Accumulation of sick leave is unlimited.

Once an employee has accumulated a minimum of 240 hours of sick leave, he or she may elect to convert the monthly accrual of 12 hours into 4 hours of vacation. Conversion is done on a monthly basis, not on a retrospective basis. Conversion is not allowed any month that an employee uses sick leave or any month which the balance of accrued sick leave falls below 240 hours. Note: the waiting period for Long-Term Disability benefits is 90 working days or 720 hours. For more information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/absence#5>.

Staff Tuition Reimbursement Program ▼

Coverage Start Date:

After 12 months of service to UNI.

Coverage End Date:

The last day of the month the appointment is no longer eligible or the last day of the termination month -- whichever comes first.

After 12 months of non-temporary service to UNI, eligible staff may apply for tuition reimbursement from an Iowa regents institution. For additional information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/pd/strp>.

Faculty Only Benefits

Sick Leave for Faculty ▼

Coverage Start Date:

First day of employment.

Coverage End Date:

Coverage will end the last day of the month in which employment ends.

Full time faculty members with a non-temporary appointment accrue sick leave. Non-temporary Faculty members accrue 60 hours or 7.5 days of sick leave at the beginning of each semester. Sick leave may be used for the employee's illness. Other uses of sick leave with limitations are emergency leave or the care of ill or injured family members, funeral leave, pallbearer leave and adoption leave. Accumulation of sick leave is limited to 120 days or 960 hours. For more information, visit <https://hrs.uni.edu/mybenefits/faculty-absence#5>.
